

PLUMMER HOUSE DAY REPORT

Independence day , 15th of August, 1947 is highly respectable day for India as it was on this auspicious day when india achieved its freedom from the british rule.The day is celebrated as the Independence day. Plummer House had the privilege of having Plummer House Day on this day. We gathered in the Basketball court in the morning 9.30 am ready to start the show . It started off with an opening prayer by Mr. Nelthrope and then we were led into the programe by Karen Vania and Philip. The programme started with a classical Bharatnatyam welcome dance by Plummer House junior girls. Then we had speech by Haren nagraj about Independence day.

It comprised of ,solo singing by Tara, a Hindi skit about old age home,followed by Mime about army man's life ,a soldier who is the pride of his nation ,who defends the honor of his motherland with his life and blood. song by smithies. One special performances was by Prabhakaran who recited a beautiful poem about independence day love for our country because at the end of the day no matter what cast or creed we are from we are still Indians

The programme was cocluded by grand finale where the entire house danced for ‘’ Vande Mataram.’’ we had the actual vote of thanks by Joshua .M ,Followed by Mr.Garry our Principal's view on the celebration .We House Master & House Mistress are thankful to our Principal Mr.Gary Evrett ,HeadMaster Mr.Nelthrope,Co-ordinator Mrs.clover Evrett , Cultural Co-ordinator Mr.Vasu and the plummer house children to make this event successful.

House Master: Cecil Thomas

House Mistress: Indu Nair