The Lucky Leaf

Rahila is crying. She has lost her golden bangle. 'Don't cry, Rahila,' says Mother. 'Go and play.'

Rahila goes outside. She sits under the wood-apple tree. It is next to the wall. Rahila counts the leaves on the tree. One, two, three, four.....

One leaf is falling from the tree. The wind blows. It carries the leaf up into the air. The leaf is now in front of her. Rahila stands up. The wind starts again. The leaf dances up and down – left and right. It turns and turns! It spins like a top. It climbs high above the roof! 'What fun! Says Rahila.

Rahila runs after the leaf. It moves in front of her and behind her. Soon, the leaf falls into a hole. It is at the side of a rosebush. Rahila picks up the leaf. She finds her golden bangle under it. Rahila laughs. She takes the bangle and the lucky leaf to show her mother.
